

four problem-solvers from $6

odor remover, $30

PROBLEM: Even baking soda can't kill that smell in the refrigerator.

SOLUTION: The reusable Fresh-N-Cold food preserver prevents icebox odors. Made of Miraclite, a mineral that absorbs humidity, the unit can be revitalized monthly by placing it in a sunny window.

maps, $6

PROBLEM: You've got the travel bug.

SOLUTION: Grab a Get Outta Town map by Mad Maps Inc. and get going. Each laminated pocket-size map features destinations, roadside diners, and other attractions outside one of 25 major U.S. cities. So what are you waiting for?

brownie pan, $36

PROBLEM: Only four corner brownies, but a tableful of crust lovers.

SOLUTION: Get extra brownie points (sorry) by baking in the maze-shaped Baker's Edge Brownie Pan. It creates at least two crusty edges for every slice and accommodates most box mixes.

shaving-gel tablets, $7

PROBLEM: The can of shaving cream takes up shoe space in the suitcase.

SOLUTION: Pack Travelon's Travel Fresh Instant Shaving Gel Tablets. Pop one in the included dish and add water to convert it into a gel. Since they're not liquid, you can carry on as many as you need.
